December 5, 1924 - July 24, 2019

"Cristobalina Hernandez 94, passed on peacefully on July 24th 2019. Born in Comerio Puerto Rico lived in Utuado Pureto Rico until she moved to New Haven CT in her 60's then moved to Florida and resided in the town of DeBary till her last days. She was a loving Wife to Ramon Hernandez, Mother to her two Daughters Nectalina and Carmen, and most precious grandmother to her grandchildren. She was well know to be an very devout member of the catholic faith and never missed her prayers every night at 7pm sharp.

Dedicating her life to God was her most valued tradition and did her very best to walk in the light of Christ which was synonymous with the meaning of her name "One who carries Christ in their soul". Her faith was so strong that she rarely had health issues and loved life, family, and treated everyone she met with kindness and love. Anyone who visited her home left with a belly full of food, drink and a few words about Gods love. She lived a long healthy life and will be missed dearly as the rock of our family, and a symbol of Gods love."

“ I want to give condolences to both her daughters. God will give you the strength you need because she was a child of God. I will miss her so much. She was like a mother to me.

“ Rest In Peace Abuela. She was a nurturing and caring soul that we will never forget. She leaves a legacy of kindness and love to everyone whose life she touched.

“ My most profound condolences to her daughters, grandson and all of her family. She was a very loving, sweet and faithful person. I will always remember her kind ways and her way with people.

She was very sharp and witty in her attitude and conversation. She always asked about the family and said she would keep us in her prayers. She was generous and giving. Heaven gained another Angel, one that needs little wisdom because she had so much !

Rest in peace      Que en Paz Descanse su Alma      She will never be forgotten.
