

Esterline Springer

April 9, 1944 - October 17, 2019

Esterline Springer, also known as Ester, was born in Barbados to loving parents, Joseph and Rosita Burrowes.

Esterline met and married the love of her life, Winston Springer, who she met at the tender age of 14, this union produced six beautiful children, of which two preceded her in death; as well as her late husband.

Esterline migrated to the United States of American at the age of 36, on a mission to better herself and family. She worked as a health care attendant while attending nursing school, and pursued a long career caring for the sick. She was hard working ambitious, and as a result, built a beautiful bed and breakfast inn in Barbados to accommodate tourism.

Esterline was a God-fearing woman, she could be found reading her bible, singing gospel hymns, and no one enjoyed a gospel concert as much as she did. As a young girl, she attended the Pentecostal church with her mother, but converted to Seventh- day Adventist as she got older. Ester loved the lord and would often say “hell fire is too hot”.

Esterline’s greatest love was for her family, her grandchildren were the joy of her life. She brought up her children in the house of the lord and prayed daily that her children would come to know the lord and serve HIM, which was her biggest concern.

Ester leaves to mourn her loss: Rosalind Smalls, her first born, Joel Maynard, her third born, Sharon Harris, her fifth born and Carol Rouzier, her last child. Along with daughters-in-law; sons-in-law, grandchildren, nieces, nephews, and a host of relatives and friends.

“Sleep on Dear Ester, take your rest, we love you,
but God loves you best.”

Sorrowfully submitted,
Your family
