“ One week before John passed we were on the phone and we laughed so much. John actually had to hang up because it was too much. That is what I will remember most, the laughter, so much laughter. When I told him to take down to Florida only what he could fit in the car - the look John gave me- I am still laughing. Rest in Peace my friend.

“ My God..the memories..right now I am overwhelmed with sadness..John made me who I am musically..he nurtured and mentored, and all the tapes we have together..the songs we wrote..he so believed in me when I doubted myself.John, what can I say? I pray for your family..you were so happy to move to Florida..I so love you John , and what you did for me all those years, the best friend always. maria, please know we all ache for your loss//John loved you so much, he was so happy with you, and I am so glad he found you. Be strong in Gods comfort and peace..John rest with the angels ..I will never forget you.. I am always in your debt..
