

Marta Mora Zambrano

July 30, 1942 - July 14, 2022

Marta Mora Zambrano Born July 30,1942, Died July 14,2022

Marta was born in Canagua;Merida, Venezuela. She immigrated to the United States in 1959; Marta, her husband and 1st child came to Bayonne, NJ to start their new life. Their family grew to 5 by 1963. And by 1968, the marriage ended. She remarried in 1972 for a second time which lasted several years, and during that time period she had 2 more children in 1973 and 1977. She had her hands full but managed to raise and love her children with all that she had. Marta was a strong and courageous woman with a kind hearted soul. Her devotion to her family was commendable and she managed to build a life for herself full of love and family.

Marta didn't have much of an education, but she had a mind for reading and making her own understanding. She learned the English language and had excellent math skills to make it in this world.

She worked two full time jobs in the hospitality industry for many years, and when she wasn't working, she would be working on projects in her home. Marta aspired for more in life. This was evident throughout life's journey. She always made life better regardless of the circumstances. She had a knack for making it happen, even with the smallest improvisation. Marta was the definition of strength, grit, tenacity, courage, love and unmovable faith in Christ. Her famous quotes, " Don't worry about it and move!", " You have to forgive", and "Don't you want to" which was the Jedi mind trick working at its finest.

Marta didn't have many friends, but all that encountered her were charmed by her presence and infectious smile. She had a way with words that only the faithful understood. She would speak in metaphors and always mentioned her struggles in life, so her family would take heed from her teachings.

Marta had many hobbies. She spent many peaceful hours tending to her garden and plants which she loved. She was also a gifted writer who loved to write poems. She found lots of healing expressing herself through her writing. Marta also had an eye for fashion, she loved to make an entrance. Just one of the many wonderful characteristics that made her so special to her loved ones.

Marta is survived by her 5 children, Belkys Gonzalez, Yvonne Vila, Jose Vila, Annette Gonzale & Lolly Morin; 12 grandchildren; Jeanpaul Gonzalez, Jason Gonzalez, Jesse Vila, Jessica Williams, Jose Williams, Julian Gonzalez, Jasmin Gonzalez, Jelisa Gonzalez, Jaselle Beltran, Jorryn Morin, Joel Gonzalez and spouses; 9 great grandchildren Jezaniah Gonzalez, Jocelyn Gonzalez, Anthony Vila, Jovanni Gonzalez, Jason Gonzalez Jr., Gabriella Vila, Jayden Caceres Julius Gonzalez, and Elijah Alvarez.

We are forever thankful for all the love and sacrifices she endured to have this wonderfully big family. We all miss her and always remember her teachings !

“ My deepest sincere condolences to the family at this time of loss. I grew up with Annette Marta's daughter we went to school together. Marta was always so nice to me her smile her laughter were always so welcoming. Marta took me to school in the mornings I'm so thankful and grateful for those childhood times of mine that she was there. I remember her working so very hard always she was a very strong woman with kindness always.

Ms. Marta was truly dedicated to life and her family she truly made a beautiful blessed family she leaves a beautiful legacy that the family will never forget. Rest in eternal peace Ms. Marta for you have gained your angel wings. To the family that I have known for years may God lift you all and strengthen you through this and know your Mother/Grandmother will forever live in your hearts and will be your guardian angel. 🙏 Thinking of you all at this time.
