“ I've known Sherika for 14 years. As long as I've lived in central Florida. She was so sweet and kind hearted and very giving. She would give me clothes and toys for my one year old son. Loving mother and friend. She'll truly be missed. I think about her and the family everyday that they can get through this and stay strong for each other.

“ Sherika I was lucky to have known you, be your friend and to work for you. I'm eternally grateful for the friendship we had. I'm sad we will never have our laughs, hugs, and talks like usual but I know you will continue to be with us and watch over all of us. I love you dearly you are the best friend I ever had. I will continue to pray for your family, sister & son, he's so much like you. Rest in paradise queen we will meet you at the gates of heaven one day.

“ Sherika I miss you, thank you so much for all the laughs, jokes, talks & for being an amazing soul & the best boss I will ever have. I was blessed to have been your friend and work for you, there will never be another you. Sending my prayers to your family and I'm praying that god heals your sister. Your son made me smile so much he reminds me of you. Watch over us queen. We love you And I'll miss you every single day.
